WHY KUKUZA

- We bring forth the expertise and talent of our parent company - RoseRyan
- Our rapid diagnostic helps cannabis companies understand where they are starting from and how to address weaknesses to propel them to the next level
- We bring financial discipline that investors crave and look for
- We help companies make strategic choices for growth and fundraising
- We've been assisting companies through hyper-growth and dealing with the FDA and regulatory world for years

Kukuza helps companies of all sizes, from startups to more established organizations, in all segments of the cannabis market. Cannabis companies seek our assistance in overseeing the finance function - or get one going - to running the daily accounting, closing the books or bringing in strategic finance insights. We specialize in outsourced cannabis CFO and strategic finance solutions, and all levels of cannabis accounting, where and when you need it. While we focus on the finance, the rest of the company can focus on the business.
